

2012 ELA Common Core Summer Institute

July 16-19
Boston, MA

QPA's annual summer institute is for K-12 teachers, administrators and district level professionals who want to effectively use performance assessment to implement the ELA Common Core State Standards.

Sign up now to send a team!

This Summer Institute is for you and/or your school team if:

- You would like to use more performance assessments
- You want to learn more about using the Common Core State Standards in ELA
- You use school- or grade-wide literacy or interdisciplinary projects
- You are interested in common writing rubrics, common writing benchmarks, or vertical alignment in your department or school
- You want to teach more 21st century, college-and career-ready skills and allow students to demonstrate mastery of rigorous standards

During the 4-day Institute, you and/or your school team will:

- Build a common understanding of the purposes and uses of performance assessment
- Develop an understanding of the QPA curriculum-embedded common writing and presentation tasks, rubrics, and how to use them
- Collaboratively score student work and explore what it means to make data-driven instructional decisions with performance assessments of high technical quality
- Plan for implementing curriculum-embedded Common Core aligned performance assessment in your school or district
